Our mission

Working in Projects works to safeguard European languages, different cultures and cooperation between peoples.

The project was born in Munich (Germany), an idea of Anna Conti, and developed via an online platform.

In the Bavarian capital we will start to collaborate with various local migrant organizations, friends living abroad and artists who will help us take off!

Our golden thread is interculturality, accompanied by the concepts and themes that follow with it, such as diversity, sustainability and of course raising awareness among children and young people about important issues and of course respect for human values.

On our multilingual online platform we will present a wide range of offerings: beginning from art to theater, from science to environmental protection, just to name a few.

Associations' speakers, artists and organizations from all over Europe will be able to use the platform to introduce themselves and offer our users their own online activities, thus reaching an international audience.

We are happy to share your ideas and initiatives,
WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU!

WORKING IN PROJECTS

Anna Conti

Anna Conti, with over twenty years of experience in the field of shows and event management, ist the manager and project creator.

Empathic, professional, open, motivated and always interested in networking, she is looking for collaborators.

Born and raised in Piedmont, Anna moved to Germany and has been working with numerous Bavarian organisations and schools over the past five years, to raise young people's awareness of social and intercultural issues.

MUNICH: Central European city of international standing, with a great cultural offer!

As an independent cultural event manager, she organised concerts in Bavaria, as well as photography, art and cinematographic exhibitions, seminars, conferences, creative and artistic workshops. The participation of guests from all over the world, like Brazil, various African countries, England, Italy have allowed her to create concrete forms of exchange and international cooperation.
For her projects, she can always count on the skills of people with great potential and special strengths, who are both professional and authentic.

Further information can be found on her homepage: www.annaconti.com.

Ready for this new challenge, she is now opening up her range of activity to a much larger audience and is looking for collaborators who are interested in using the potential of the platform and who share the philosophy of this project. Goal is the development of a series of events in a hybrid format - online and in person. Part of the deal are trips and cultural exchanges especially designed for the needs and benefit of the young users.

Target analysis

Our project stems from the desire of many bilingual families living abroad to strengthen their children's language skills through various activities held in their second mother tongue.

The advent of the pandemic has also affected children and teenagers who have suffered the consequences of isolation, lack of social exchanges and leisure activities, closure of recreational centers.

We want to offer opportunities and inputs that help children and young people to maintain their cheerfulness, carefree, cultivating new passions and interests, opening up to the meeting of peers from different countries.

Our programs are primarily aimed at the 7-24 age group. They can be shared with both the family and the faculty/teachers.

How and to whom we introduce ourselves

Our goal is to reach the adults who will act as a bridge between us (content / program that is offered on the site www.workinginprojects.eu) and our intended users: children and adolescents.

We will apply the current regulations on the processing of personal data with special attention to minors. The contents of our proposals will be presented clearly on our platform.

We are open to collaborations with parents, teachers, students, organizations and associations.

Our platform will therefore act as a connection point between the different offers proposed by migrant and youth organizations, promoting socio-cultural exchanges.

We need you!

To lead our programs, we are looking for:

- Artists
- Authentic experiences
- Associations
- Experts in various fields
- Authors
- Creative people
- Collaborators with out-of-the-box ideas
- And so much more!
